

Erin Boyle Artist Statement

Erin is so inspired by the emotions, structures, and colors of a person's face that she needs to capture it and repeat it in paint. She has had her art exhibited in galleries and peoples' homes. If Erin isn't painting for herself, she is working on commission pieces for patrons. She resides in Southern California where she has been able to broaden her skills and continue to create.

To view Erin's work you may find her on Instagram: @erin518boyle