

Michelle Abundiz Artist Statement

My art should be interpreted as pictorial unconventional narratives that rely more on underlying themes and semiotics in order to create "raw" and "natural" ideas. My body of work encapsulates the conception of homes emblematic of psychological space and, therefore, results in a dialogue between homes and the female body. It is derivative of dreams, memories, even places I long to experience.