

Yana Grishchuk Artist Statement

“The Universe”

Concrete, cotton rope

2021

Yana Grishchuk is an Asia born Russian Artist who works with Concrete in Los Angeles, California

I adore Concrete’s simplicity and creative potential. It’s fragile and monumental, vulnerable and brutal, plastic and dense at the same time. Just like me.

I am attracted by its duality.

It needs a strong inner frame. Without iron reinforcement, the concrete structure will lie down at the first good shaking.

The material is simple and inconspicuous. But with a creative approach, it will reveal itself in a way that no one expects!
